

National industrial action

Amended timetable with fewer services

Services will be busier than usual, especially in peak hours. You may need to queue, and may not be able to board your chosen service, so allow extra time for your journey

On Sunday 9 July, services will start later than normal

Visit our websites for more info about the industrial action

Always check before you travel at nationalrail.co.uk

ThamesLink/